EXAMINEE INFORMATION

Situation
I am your friend and I have a problem. Find out what my problem is and offer me some good advice.

First
You should look at the pictures below and ask:

- What is the problem?
- What are your options?
- What are the disadvantages of each option?

Then
When you have all the information you need, you should offer some advice to help solve the problem. You can choose one of the solutions or create your own solution to the problem. Remember to use information you learn from asking questions to explain your final choice.

Finally
After you have shared your advice, you will be asked more questions about the topic.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Option 1</td>
<td>Don’t tell her what I really think. I could tell her it looks very nice.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Option 2</td>
<td>I could be honest and tell her that I think that it looks really bad.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What are your options?</td>
<td>It would be a lie to tell her it looks nice. We are always very honest with each other and I don’t want to lie to her.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What are the disadvantages of each option?</td>
<td>I may hurt her feelings because we are very close. She might feel bad about her new hairstyle or get mad at me.</td>

ELABORATION QUESTIONS

1. Have you ever told someone that you really liked something about them and it wasn’t true? Tell me about it.

2. Are there situations where it’s better to lie than to tell the truth? Tell me about this.

3. Some people distinguish between white lies (small lies) and serious lies. Do you think they are justified in thinking this way? Why?
